Address: District Neelum, Azad Jammu & Kashmir, Pakistan

Profession: Government Teacher / Agriculture & Community Development Enthusiast

Syed Kamal Hussain Shah is an experienced education professional with more than 20 years of service in the government education sector. He holds an academic background in Sociology and has strong engagement in community development, youth leadership, and agricultural activities in District Neelum, Azad Kashmir. Along with his teaching career, he is involved in the walnut business and actively promotes the agricultural and tourism potential of the Neelum Valley. He is also a member of the Pakistan Scouts Association and contributes to social service and youth development activities.

Education

Master's Degree in Sociology (M.A / M.Sc Sociology)

Professional Experience

Government Teacher

Government Education Department, Azad Jammu & Kashmir

Duration: Approximately 20 Years

Responsibilities:

Teaching and mentoring students in the public education sector

Supporting student development and academic growth

Participating in educational and community activities

Business & Agricultural Activities

Walnut Business (Juglans regia)

District Neelum is well known for high-quality walnut production. Syed Kamal Hussain Shah is actively involved in walnut trade and promotes local agricultural products.

Morel Mushroom (Morchella – locally known as Guchi)

The forests of Neelum Valley produce organic wild Morel mushrooms, which are highly valuable. Local communities collect significant quantities every year, contributing to the local economy.

Social & Community Work

Member – Pakistan Scouts Association

Active participation in scouting activities

Youth training and leadership development

Community service initiatives

Key Areas of Interest

Agriculture Development

Walnut Production & Trade

Organic Forest Products

Tourism Development in Neelum Valley

Community & Youth Development

Skills

Teaching and Training

Community Engagement

Agricultural Awareness

Leadership and Social Work

Languages

Urdu, Local Languages of Neelum Valley